

THE SHADOW GOVERNMENT'S HIDDEN AGENDA ON UFOs

Clandestine groups with corporate, financial, geopolitical and religious interests within the global shadow government are involved in super-secret "black" projects, some of which centre around UFOs and ETs.

Stagecraft

After 50 or 60 years and trillions of dollars in covert expenditures, with some of the world's most brilliant minds at work, some really amazing advances have occurred in the covert world. I'm certain that the state of the art is extremely advanced and, in some respects, is approaching parity with some of the extraterrestrial capabilities.

Also, we have noted that many abductions are clustered near military facilities or within military families. I learned from some of the people who were looking into this back in the 1970s and 1980s that they had found a very strong correlation with military families/ personnel and military areas. This was reported to some of the civilian UFO groups, but the people trying to get that information out were blacklisted from every meeting and were not allowed to talk about it. It was whitewashed and covered up. Makes you wonder who is running these UFO and abduction groups!

In fact, the executive director of one of these civilian abduction groups called me and said that he had heard I had reached this conclusion, that I was absolutely correct, and that there were a large number of their cases which he knew were military abductions. But this fact was being covered up by the founder of this group, and anyone who tried to bring this information out or tried to talk about a positive interaction with extraterrestrials was summarily removed. It turns out that this prominent UFO abduction group had dominant funding from Prince S.A.!

During the course of our investigations in the 1990s, we identified a few people who have been on these squads. One is a man outside Seattle, Washington, and another one is in Colorado, who was a US Army Ranger and had been pulled into one of these compartmented programs. He said that it was the practice of "stagecraft". You were only sent on an abduction once, and then they separated you. I've asked him to come forward publicly, but he's terrified and he's certain that he'll be assassinated if he does. He said that they actually had humans directing people who were made to look like extraterrestrials. This "stagecraft" is very advanced and would fool almost anyone that it really was an ET doing the operation. He said they were using electronics, as well as drugs, to abduct people. "You have no idea how many important political and key military figures have had either themselves or their family members abducted by us so they would learn to hate the extraterrestrials and support the 'Star Wars' effort."

I said, "Yes, I do believe it, because I met with Prince S.A., whose brother had been abducted through a covert paramilitary operation so that this powerful banking family would accept there was a threat. These operations are extremely well managed and very sophisticated at the art of deception."

A number of separate, corroborating people who've been in corporate and military intelligence programs have told me the exact same details regarding the modalities that are used and the purpose behind the operations. These hoaxes are perpetrated in other countries as well. And the purpose is to do exactly what Wernher von Braun warned about: to prepare people for an eventual false threat from outer space that would "unite the world" around a new level of centralised military-industrial-economic power...

Out of the Loop

...When I met in England with Lord Hill-Norton—a five-star admiral, "sea lord" and former Ministry of Defence (MOD) head—he wanted to know why he was never told anything about UFOs. He had heard that I'd met with the CIA director and was briefing

Clinton's people. I went to his home in Hampshire. It was one of these grand old houses with the thick, thatched roofs—a beautiful place. We sat in his living room in a couple of wing chairs. He was on my right side and had a little pad of paper and was asking me questions, taking notes fastidiously. He wanted to know everything I knew. Lord Hill-Norton was an intense, short man with piercing blue eyes.

At one point he asked me, "Why would they not tell me about this? I was head of the Ministry of Defence, and I was also head of MI-5 and MI-6 and all the other sensitive operations in the UK. Plus, I was head of the Military Committee for NATO! Yet I never knew about this when I was in those positions. I only learned about it later, and I found out about it from people like Lord Mountbatten. Why wouldn't they tell me?"

He was outraged that he was "out of the loop", just like Admiral Tom Wilson, who was head of Intelligence, Joint Staff, and just like CIA director James Woolsey, and on and on and on.

I said, "Well, sir, let me answer your question with a question. What would you have done if you had found out that there was a transnational group that answered to no government in the world but had infiltrated almost every aspect of every government of any significance in the world; that had arrogated to itself, through a criminal enterprise and ruthless behaviour (including murder and assassinations), illegal control of the most important technologies ever discovered, including technologies capable of interstellar travel, technologies that could take the whole world off the need for fossil fuels, save the environment and end poverty in the world; and that this group had utter contempt for the rule of law and for democracy and for the freedoms and welfare of the people, or even for the future of Earth? What would you have done?"

He exclaimed, "I wouldn't have stood for it for one bloody moment!"

I said, "And that's why they never told you. You've just answered your own question."

He asked, "Well, what do you mean?"

I said, "Because if you had known, and this would have been your response, you would have ended up like Jack Kennedy, or like Lord Mountbatten—blown up by an alleged IRA bomb that was actually set by this rogue group. And you would have ended up like Marilyn Monroe and Mary Meyer and all these other people who were killed for not going along with the secrecy. You would have ended up like all the rest of them." Then I added, "And like, unfortunately, some of my group—like former CIA director Bill Colby."

He just looked at me. He then muttered something to effect of, "Those bastards!"...

The New Era

...When did all these super-secret projects begin? The truth is, there are still black projects and materials that have not been declassified from the turn of the last century and World War I!

There have been elements of this motif of secrecy that have existed in one way or another in society for thousands of years. There have always been cartels. There have always been secret societies trying to acquire secret power. And they have gone through various transformations, depending on the exigencies of the time and place and political and technological circumstances.

But certainly, in the 20th century, there have been very covert programs connected to important industrial interests that have known about these technologies—particularly the so-called free-energy electromagnetic systems, which is what Tesla discovered.

Even Faraday had discovered an "over-unity effect" in some of the experiments he did in the 1800s. And so there have been interests that have been keeping those things suppressed and quiet for a long, long time.

In the 1800s—the era of the Vanderbilts and the Rockefellers and Standard Oil—there were powerful interests that wanted to keep such free energy developments secret. At one time, Standard Oil had a greater income than the government of the United States. This corporation, controlled by the Rockefeller family, was that large and that powerful.

Into that monopolistic, industrial environment, geniuses like Tesla, T. Townsend, Brown and others stepped with their so-called zero-point energy and free-energy machines and early high-voltage antigravity systems.

And there were reports of ET craft in the late 1800s—the famous "airship scare" of 1896.

I have it from an excellent source that General MacArthur actually was involved in the retrieval of an ET object in China, back in the 1930s.

So, there have been programs observing the extraterrestrial matter and at the same time trying to control the technological issue for over 100 years. However, a quantum leap occurred in these programs during the World War II era.

Around the time that we developed the knowledge of thermonuclear weapons and were on the path of early space exploration, there were programs that were investigating propulsion systems that looked like flying saucers. Von Braun was involved, as was Edward Teller, Dr Vannevar Bush and others. Goddard in 1936 and 1937 was developing some of Tesla's work. They stole Tesla's antigravity work and sold it to the Nazis in the mid-1930s.

But once we moved from that level of experimentation and development into using thermonuclear weapons and covert antigravity propulsion, the extraterrestrial people who had been watching Earth for thousands of years became very concerned. They knew that there's a very short distance from that point of technological development to the ability to go interstellar. And here is a group of people, on this beautiful Earth, who, in a few decades, have gone from horses and buggies to antigravity, electromagnetic weapons systems and thermonuclear devices. Well, you would have to be galactically brain dead not to be very concerned about this!

But certainly, in the 20th century, there have been very covert programs connected to important industrial interests that have known about these technologies—particularly the so-called free-energy electromagnetic systems, which is what Tesla discovered.

At that time, during and after WWII, ET reconnaissance and limited intervention increased. ETs were trying to slow down the pace at which we were going into this destructive trajectory. We have Disclosure Project military witnesses who describe extraterrestrial vehicles intercepting intercontinental ballistic launches off Vandenberg Air Force Base and over the South Atlantic. ETs were trying to delay our wild push into mutually assured destruction.

People like Colonel Diedrikson, who had been with the Atomic Energy Commission, observed that there was a strong extraterrestrial concern at all our nuclear facilities. He had personal knowledge of the interception of an intercontinental ballistic missile that had been specially developed so it could be exploded on the Moon. The ETs intercepted it before it could become exo-atmospheric.

By the 1940s, we were actually knocking down extraterrestrial vehicles near Roswell, New Mexico, which at the time was our only nuclear base. We have an FBI document written to J. Edgar Hoover stating that a specially configured radar system was responsible for downing those ET craft.

By the 1960s, we had "the means to travel among the stars", as Ben Rich [now deceased former head of Lockheed Skunk Works] said. Rogue covert projects had developed electromagnetic systems that involved the ability to alter consciousness and harm people.

By the way, Tesla actually had a functioning antigravity experiment working and witnessed before the Wright brothers flew!

During President Eisenhower's administration, any semblance of constitutionality and legality associated with these projects went down the toilet, and it has been out of control ever since...

The Shadow Government stabbed Eisenhower in the back, as (Retired) Brigadier-General Lovekin testified:

"He [Eisenhower] realised that...whatever it was that we were faced with was not going to be in the best hands. As far as I can remember, that was the expression that was used, 'It is not going to be in the best hands'. That was a real concern. And so it has turned out to be."

Truly Quantum, Cosmic Moment

I have learned from people like Catherine Austin Fitts—who worked with the first Bush presidency as assistant secretary for Housing and Urban Development—that there is an enormous amount of clandestine funding being siphoned out of every agency, through dummy programs, into these black projects. When she discovered this, they ran her out of town and tried to destroy her life financially and professionally. This is a mainstream, credible person who's been in some of the top investment banking firms in the country.

As my friends in the Pentagon say, "A billion here and a billion there, and pretty soon you're talking real money." Thousands of employees are involved in various projects, but they don't really know the details of what they are working on. Someone might be working on a little widget here within a compartment that's part of this compartment that's part of that compartment—it's very, very tightly controlled.

The policy group or control group is 200 to 300 people, and it is transnational. The United States by no means is the only major centre of activity. There are important representatives in this group from China, Latin America, the Vatican, various institutes, Europe, Russia. National boundaries actually mean nothing. National issues are irrelevant. It's not even about government as you and I normally think of it. It is centred in corporate, financial, transnational and religious interests; they are the tail wagging the dog of government.

The single most powerful entity within this group today is the corporate Mormon empire. The Mormon hierarchy has vast financial and corporate holdings linked to these covert programs, but the "rank and file" wittingly have nothing to do with it.

Enforcement...you know, I always tell people, "Oh, the CIA? Those guys are pussycats." The ones you've got to worry about are the contract guys who work for Lockheed or E-Systems, or the ones who are contracted from this group who are attached to what are called the Devil's Disciples, which is a motorcycle gang. It's a subsection of the Hell's Angels that routinely engages in torture and human sacrifice and vivisection—where they cut you open alive—in order to enforce secrecy in certain settings...

The people who are in these key roles are often there because they have been brought along, intergenerationally—that is, from one generation to another.

For example, I mentioned James Jesus Angleton, who signed off on the wiretap of Marilyn Monroe. I was contacted by a descendent, who is enormously wealthy and involved in this covert group but not with the Agency. Everything important is outside the Agency, in the private world.

After The Disclosure Project event, he called me up and said, "You've moved our timeline of bringing this information out up by six to 12 years."

I said, "Good."

He added, "We're looking at this material with NATO; there is a compartmented operation within NATO headquarters that deals with this, in Europe. But what we're planning to do—and we would like for you to cooperate with this—is that, in a few years, we're planning to have the key political, military and religious leaders of the world announce that ETs have been detected and we have evidence that we're not alone and that there are extraterrestrials."

I said, "It's a bit late in the day for that, don't you think?!"

He was trying to talk me into delaying disclosure to match their timetable. Of course, I have been approached this way before—remember General T. E.

I said, "My concern is that in delaying disclosure, there would be an opportunity to further consolidate power around an agenda that is the antithesis of the direction the Earth should be taking."

The more sympathetic members of this group—including this gentleman, Angleton—are open to getting this information out sooner rather than later. There is so much spy-versus-spy going on within the Shadow Government, and there are so many factions and shifting alliances. It's an extremely dynamic situation. People have a tendency to view this covert control group as monolithic and fixed, but it isn't. It's very dynamic, even fractured...

Monster of Unchecked Power

There is a relatively small group of people actually running the secret UFO programs. In terms of full knowledge and operational authority—executive authority—it has nothing to do with the President of the United States or the Congress.

In fact, I was told directly by an executive with E-Systems that E-Systems was heavily involved in these areas. He said, "But very few people who work with the corporation know it."

The monies that such corporations receive are passed through several shell operations and from various agencies and end up in these super-secret black projects.

There is an interlocking power structure of corporate, institutional, financial and religious entities. They do not operate according to anything resembling the rule of law or the Constitution of the United States or any other country. Within that shadowy world, there are rogue elements that have broken off from the main covert operation.

There are some very powerful rogue elements in this country and elsewhere and within certain secret groups. They have shadowy ties to the main group—but can act independently and at times counter to the main group's agenda. So, it is very complex.

It is like layers of an onion: you think you've got to the centre, only to find there are 20 more layers to peel back. I've been peeling back these layers for about 15 years now, and have a very good idea of who these people are, how it's structured and what the agenda is.

There are people in the central control group who have connections to government but who really don't know what the hell is going on inside FEMA or the Mormon corporate empire and the bizarre, shadowy plans related to their eschatological solution to the human problem.

In the mid-1990s, I was invited to a "salon" in San Francisco, in Pacific Heights. A socialite who is friends with Gordon Getty, Willy Brown and Steven Bechtel (of the Bechtel Corporation) wanted me to brief her circle of friends on these issues. (By the way, Bechtel Corporation is a big shadow-government contractor, and George Schultz is associated with them. They are all part of this secret government apparatus. There is a very powerful cell involving Schultz, George Bush the elder, Frank Carlucci, Maurice Strong and others associated with the powerful Blackstone Group.) The chairman of AT&T was there, as was the former head of SRI, Stanford Research International. I was there to present to them what we knew and to discuss our plans for the future.

Sitting next to me was the former chairman of SRI. At one point, he leaned into me and said, "You know, I never knew any of this, but I knew some of it had to be going on at SRI. What do you know about..." such and such.

He explained that, like the CIA director I briefed, he was an administrator but did not have a need to know and was left in the dark about such projects. He said, "I was basically a bureaucrat, a bag man, trying to keep the money flowing into this huge operation. But if DARPA [Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency] had a project going on, I really didn't know any details. I might hear a whisper here and there, but these projects were tightly controlled, and it didn't matter that I was the chairman of SRI. And the way I got there was to know you don't ask too many questions! So now I want to ask you!"

During the Iran–Contra hearings, Senator Inouye stated that there is a shadowy group that has its own air force, its own navy, its own funding mechanism and is above the law. This is especially true in the areas of advanced covert technologies, UFO and extraterrestrial matters and related weapons systems.

One of the most dangerous trends that has evolved between the 1960s and today is that this Shadow Government became so powerful because it was able to be self-funded. Now, let me explain. Dick D'Amato of the Senate Appropriations Committee was right when he said that there's upwards of US$100 billion in the black, illegal budget.

But the big action is in the corporate, private, financial world. Let's say that you're Bell Labs at Murray Hill. I'm working with a witness who spent his entire career at Bell Labs. He was part of a cell that did a lot of super-secret covert contracting with military operations that had extraterrestrial communications devices and circuits. These corporate labs studied the technologies and uncovered how they worked and their possible uses. They came out with widget A or X that then became something they patented, which in turn became a multi-hundred-billion-dollar industry. Think fibre optics, integrated circuits, lasers and the like.

One of the most dangerous trends that has evolved between the 1960s and today is that this Shadow Government became so powerful because it was able to be self-funded.

This cancer of covert government funding metastasised into countless corporate, financial and technological assets. And now the covert private corporate world has technologies that can trump anything at DIA, CIA or any of the other alphabet soup of government agencies.

Another corporate witness whom I have interviewed said that while at Bell Labs, he saw 28 or 29 of these free-energy devices that they had acquired and "black shelved" or hidden. This witness had worked on these technologies. He's retired now.

General Motors and other large corporations are also sitting on Earth-saving technologies but will not let them out to the public.

So these interlocking, multinational corporate and financial interests are a multitrillion-dollar operation that trumps any power of the Pentagon or the United States government or any nation on Earth. It is a monster of unchecked, corrupt corporate and covert power that is only partially governmental. So, unfortunately, even if you have a powerful person in what people call "the government" who may want the truth out, he feels overwhelmed by these other "special interests"...

One of the men whom I've worked with for years is a covert corporate operative involved in these types of operations. When I asked him to come forward, he said, "There is no agency or government on Earth that can protect me from the wrath of this group, because it's outside these governments and much more powerful."

Now, when you have something this large and complex, you have people involved with both joint interests and separate interests. And the more separate the interests become, the more likelihood there is of a breakaway rogue group. The most violent rogue operations are the ones that are connected to ideology, as opposed to just money, and are rooted in a certain ideological and eschatological world-view. These are the people who have a world-view of destruction and feel that the only way for Christ to come back is for the world to be destroyed and for billions of people to be killed. There is a very powerful group that holds to that belief system. But they really are looking in their rearview mirror. What they are awaiting has already come to pass. They don't know what cycle we are in already, never mind what century we're in.

So, they're completely off the timeline of the evolution of the human race, but don't know it. They are driving the world in a certain direction to fulfil their interpretation of a prophecy, which has already happened. Alas, it may be a self-fulfilling prophecy of Armageddon—one that they create through ignorance, superstition and hatred. So, ultimately, the problem is ignorance, and the solution is enlightenment, knowledge and genuine spirituality...

Hoaxed Threat from Outer Space

After 9/11, many mainstream people began to question what is really going on behind the scenes. A certain sinister manipulation is evident to many people. I don't have the luxury of putting all that information aside and thinking it's a conspiracy theory. I know it to be true. The only question I've ever had is: when do I put all these elements together and try to explain it so it makes sense to people—and sound the alarm to wake up and don't be deceived? People must not be stampeded into a fear of ETs and thus begin to openly support "Star Wars" against ET civilisations. These covert special interests want to unite and control the world through fear, rather than uniting the world through peace and hope. It is the antithesis of where we should be at this time in our evolution. Such efforts, therefore, are the antithesis of what would sustain life and a good future on Earth.

Most people can understand that there are secret projects. A smaller number of people comprehend that there are ultra-secret, black projects. Everyone in the government knows it. And then there are a certain number of people who can get their mind around the fact that some of these could be related to projects that have broken away and are rogue and illegal, that are centred in the corporate and military-industrial laboratory complex that deals with advanced energy systems and UFOs.

But you then get into a smaller subset who understand that some of these rogue groups have fully operational devices that look like UFOs, have created artificial life-forms that look like extraterrestrials, have been going around simulating contact events called "abductions", and have engaged in the mutilation of cattle for the fear factor that they can put out to the public and the sub-culture of ufology, the pop media, the science fiction buffs and others, because that's how they seed the consciousness with fear. And then there's an even smaller number who understand that the strings being pulled behind the scenes are from a transnational, fascist-oriented group, not unlike the Thules who were behind the emergence of Hitler. What they couldn't do overtly during the Third Reich, they have done covertly. And through Operation Paperclip, we brought them into the United States and seeded the aerospace industry and the CIA.

So, the global socialist-fascist effort that did not take hold overtly in World War II has been going on, at a subterranean level, since then. We are about to see its unveiling in a larger way, as attempts to consolidate power in the world around such a philosophy and around such a structure become consummated. Meanwhile, they speak of democracy, but they mean a pseudo-democracy of a centrally controlled society run covertly by an unidentified and unacknowledged power structure.

Now, if you find this disturbing, you should. And the only antidote to this that I can see is knowledge and truth and letting enough people know what's going on so that they won't be deceived—because those running this covert agenda are counting on our collective ignorance. What they are banking on is a matrix of miseducation, diseducation and disinformation that has kept everyone consumer cows of belief systems and materialism. False belief systems, mixed with various material addictions, create the poison of choice for the masses.

But by sharing from heart to heart, we can tell people the truth and explain another vision of the good future that awaits Earth and her children. We live in the time of these extremes—very dark and very bright. We live in the time of transformative change. Most of the people who are at the Pentagon, in the White House and in the CIA know nothing about these ultra-secret agendas... Most are good people caught in a machine not of their making and about which they have very little knowledge. It is our job to share this knowledge with everyone, including those in the government and military. For 12 years we have been moving this information into those circles, and many are realising that they have been deceived. They then support disclosure.

Just before 9/11, I was giving a lecture in Oregon. After the talk, a man came up to me who had been in the military for his whole career. He was there with a friend, and they were acting very cautiously. When almost everyone had left, one of our Disclosure Project volunteers, Jordan Pease, said these men wanted a moment alone with me. One man, I'll call him R. J., had been involved in the military from an early age, and in the 1960s had been pulled into these covert projects. One such project dealt with his ability to set up spy technologies from space that were so advanced that you could hear people talking from space and see everything they were doing. And this was in the 1960s!

The technologies that are out there are far beyond anything ever reported in the news. This is why I laugh when they say, "Oh, we can't find Osama bin Laden." Right. That and other fairy tales. Please. I mean, how stupid do they think we are? But, more on that later.

R. J. proceeded to tell me that, because of his skills, he was pulled deeper and deeper into these projects and eventually was pulled into the projects dealing with UFOs. He said, "You know, I'm afraid you don't understand what these things are that you think are ETs."

Most of the people who are at the Pentagon,
in the White House and in the CIA know nothing about these ultra-secret agendas...

And I said, "Oh, you're referring to the man-made ones that are programmed life-forms?"

And he pushed back from the table. He asked, "How do you know about that?"

"Oh, I have around a dozen witnesses who've worked on these pseudo-ET creatures," I said. "But if I talk too much about it, people will think I've just absolutely lost my marbles."

He said, "Let me tell you what I worked on."

So, he proceeded to tell me about the projects he had participated in, both in the United States and Australia.

"We did have extraterrestrial materials that were being worked on and we developed very advanced technologies that were a type of antigravity craft. I saw transdimensional capabilities, things that involve the ability to go forward or backward in time—all kinds of things," he explained.

(We have another witness who was with Boeing and McDonnell Douglas who knew about Project Redlight and Operation Looking Glass that involve those capabilities.)

Then R. J. said, "You know, what most people don't realise is that I was involved in putting together the projects that were doing a lot of these things that people call abductions! We were hoaxing a lot of these abduction events that people think are extraterrestrial contact. Well, this one place where I worked—it was underground—there were all these containers. And there were these creatures that we were growing in a culture medium that were at different stages of development. And these creatures looked like what people think are extraterrestrials."

R. J. proceeded to tell me that there were several generations of these artificial life-forms. They were trying to perfect their man-made ETs; they had been doing these Nazi-like genetic experiments from the '40s, '50s, until he was out of those projects. These pseudo-ETs were all lined up, almost like an archive. He said the state-of-the-art ones were really quite good and believable.

"Of course, we had these creatures that were like automatons, being commanded by humans, on these things that people think are extraterrestrial ships."

R. J. didn't know that I already knew that these hoaxes were going on and were very sophisticated. He thought that I had been deceived, like most UFO researchers.

"No, I've known about this for a very long time," I said.

"Well, why don't you talk about it?" he asked.

"Because," I explained, "I'm trying to get people to even acknowledge the fact that there's such a thing as a UFO."

"Yes, I understand your position," he said. "I'm very glad you know about this. But do you know something else? Much of this has been placed in facilities all over the world, in the jungle in the Amazon, in Australia and other remote places. Eventually I got assigned to a deeper and deeper level, and before I was going to be deployed to this place in Australia they took me into another level of my educational program."

He said, "You don't really know what's going on."

He explained that he'd witnessed a satanic ritual initiation.

Those present shared blood, and there were sacrifices and torture going on. He was being acculturated to the programs of satanic worship and satanic sacrifice and the love of the bloodthirsty killing of innocents. He told us that once he got to that level, he had to take a vow to Lucifer. And he did.

This is not the first person who's told me about these programs. He was transferred to Pine Gap, Australia, and said it was the most unusual experience. He was flown in to this facility at night in a helicopter. And as they approached this hill, what looked like a normal piece of land opened up. It was like it was a hologram. And as they approached, the side of this hill opened and they flew right into the earth. They went deep inside, to where there were enormous, man-made UFOs. There were big triangular ones there as well.

He said, "We have facilities like these all over the world."

As he shared this with me, he would stop periodically and say, "I know you're going to think I'm making this up, and I know you can't believe this."

At the end of his account, I said, "I want you to know that I have multiple witnesses like yourself—whom you don't know, because you were in your own compartmented project—who have told me virtually the same story about different places at different times. And so I have no doubt in my mind that this has been going on."

He took a deep breath, then let it go—a huge sigh of relief.

One of the most sophisticated facilities of this type is in England. A lot of these so-called "reptilian-looking" creatures that people think are extraterrestrial are programmed life-forms and bio-machines, and are being created there.

Now, most people would rather not hear this level of detail, quite frankly. But it's important for them to understand the kind of mindset we're dealing with. One of the gentlemen I'm working with, from a very well-connected family of centi-millionaires who are very involved in diplomatic and intelligence operations, had gone through the programming at a certain meditation institute. He got to Level 14 of the training. He said that unless they could do a profile on you and see that you were to the "right of Genghis Khan", in terms of wanting to be aggressively violent and destructive, you couldn't get past that level. Since he wasn't wired to be extremely violent and hate filled, they ended their involvement with him.

He said they talked a lot about Dr Greer and The Disclosure Project, and they were really glad that I was getting information out that the UFOs and ETs are real. But they were furious to the point of deep hatred that I was exposing the false phenomenon and their false agenda. They are committed to this final battle of interplanetary war, which is the chief agenda of the hard-core secrecy. They were livid that I would not go along with that agenda, and that I had discovered the plan for hoaxing an ET attack on Earth and was exposing it to people at the Pentagon and elsewhere. He said they wanted me dead. They do not want anyone of substance saying that the real extraterrestrial presence

"You know, what most people don't realise is that I was involved in putting together the projects that were doing a lot of these things that people call abductions! We were hoaxing a lot of these abduction events that people think are extraterrestrial contact..."

is not only very benign but also extremely helpful and quite enlightened.

"Do you realise how much you are hated?" he asked.

"Yes," I answered, "but that and their threats will never keep us from speaking the truth."

As The Disclosure Project was picking up steam, I was warned that, if it went beyond what they could control through the mainstream big media, things would happen to shut it down. I was told this explicitly...

There are agendas within agendas within agendas within agendas. The question is: how do we get enough of the information out to enough of those with power, and to the public, to provide knowledge and shine a light into these dark corners? And we also have to clearly describe an alternative.

After 9/11, I immediately made the decision that we must quickly identify and get out to the public these new, Earth-saving technologies, while continuing with The Disclosure Project. We had to do something to create enough support and potential funding to be a countervailing force to this machine that's been going on for over 50 years. It was time for us to go from military witnesses and documents to the actual technologies. When 9/11 happened, we knew we were getting very late in the game.

In the fall of 2001, we formed Space Energy Access Systems (SEAS), Inc. A group of people put in a few hundred thousand dollars so together we could investigate what was available in the non-covert world. We have found some technologies at proof-of-principle stage, but none so far that is ready for release to the public as a free-energy system. Those devices that are more advanced—and we have seen some—are held by scientists who have been extremely intimidated or brainwashed into secrecy.

For example, Dr Loder and an engineer on our team went to visit one of these scientists who had been intercepted by a physicist who has been indoctrinating him with eschatological belief systems. This spook, who is masquerading as a scientist, told the inventor, "Don't let any of your technology out until our society collapses. And then, phoenix-like, you can be the science saviour and bring the technology out when everything has fallen apart."

So, basically, this man has been brainwashed with an eschatological timeline and is withholding the technology, pending these cataclysmic events. Of course, this is a self-fulfilling prophecy. If we don't have something to stave off the depletion of the oil reserves and the destruction of the biosphere, these terrible events will happen. So, it's circular thinking. But you can't really do anything once someone has been brainwashed with this belief system.

We have also identified an antigravity system that is in the early stages of development. With sufficient funding, it could be brought to maturity as a free-energy and antigravity system. The world desperately needs these Earth-saving technologies.

Conclusion

Humanity now stands at a crossroad. We'll either continue to destroy the Earth and its inhabitants through ignorance, warfare and conflict, or we'll reach a state of spiritual acknowledgment and social maturity from which we acknowledge our inherent oneness. If not, then powerful technologies will remain in the hands of people who are submerged in ignorance, superstition and conflict.

My direct personal experiences have led me to understand something important about the nature of advanced ET civilisations: they have selected non-hostility as a natural evolutionary step. In other words, their high level of consciousness is incompatible with divisiveness or conflict. Otherwise, with the incredible technology at their command, they would have long since destroyed one another.

This is a planet of free will. Our free will has to be applied in order for this transformation to happen. This is the lesson we have to learn. And as soon as we all pull together and use our free will to make this happen, it will happen.

We are trained in our educational systems and our society simply to conform. But, you know what? If you're conforming to a system that is utterly insane, there's a problem. And the world that has crept around us has become very insane.

Therefore, we need to see it for what it is, break from it and manifest the good future that is sitting there, ripe like fruit ready to fall from a tree into our hands.

The Earth and humanity are ready to blossom. And it is not just the springtime of Earth. It is the springtime of the entire cosmos.

The question is: how do we get enough of the information out to enough of those with power, and to the public, to provide knowledge and shine a light into these dark corners?

About the Author:

Steven M. Greer, MD, is a medical doctor and director of The Disclosure Project, which he founded. He has also been supervising a worldwide search for alternative energy sources, specifically those known as zero-point or over-unity devices, with the plan to identify and develop systems which will eliminate the need for fossil fuels.

On May 9, 2001, Dr Greer presided over The Disclosure Project Press Conference from the National Press Club in Washington, DC. Over 20 military, government, intelligence and corporate witnesses presented compelling testimony regarding the existence of extraterrestrial life-forms visiting the planet and the reverse-engineering of the energy and propulsion systems of these craft. Over one billion people heard of the press conference through webcast and subsequent media coverage on BBC, CNN, CNN Worldwide, Voice of America, Pravda, the Chinese media and media outlets throughout Latin America. The webcast had 250,000 people waiting online—the largest webcast in the history of the National Press Club.

Dr Greer recently published his memoir, Hidden Truth – Forbidden Knowledge, which tells the story of his spiritual journey and his relationship with extraterrestrial beings and his encounters with those forces trying to keep the ET and energy issues secret. This article is an edited extract from several chapters of the book, and part two includes some additional contributions from Dr Greer. Another extract and a book review were published in NEXUS 13/06. The book is now available from your nearest NEXUS office, or from Crossing Point, Inc., PO Box 265, Crozet, VA 22932, USA.
